Looking for training opportunities?

CareerSource Southwest Florida offers training opportunities to Workforce Investment Act (WIA) eligible job seekers. Ask to speak with a Career Development Representative (CDR) for an individual eligibility screening. You must be 18 years of age, or older to apply for WIA adult services. Please have the following information ready to get started:

- Driver License (DL) or State Identification.
- Proof of your social security number.
- If you are not a U.S. citizen you must provide alien registration card or certificate of naturalization.
- Males Born after December 31, 1959 must have registered for selective service by age 25. Males can begin registering on their 18th birthday. With only a few exceptions, the registration requirement applies to all male U.S. citizens and male immigrants residing in the United States. Visit <https://www.sss.gov> for more information.

Additional information may be needed to complete eligibility determination for other WIA services requested:

- ⇒ Proof of last 6 months total household income.*
- ⇒ Last five years work history including: employer name, address and phone number, position held, wage and reason for leaving.
- ⇒ Proof of Unemployment Compensation if out of state.
- ⇒ Copy of high school diploma, General Equivalency Diploma, college degree (if applicable).

* For purposes of household income a family is defined as two or more persons related by blood marriage or decree of court that is living in a single residence and is (1) a husband, wife and dependent children, or (2) a parent or guardian and dependent children, or (3) a husband and wife.

Training opportunities may include, but not limited to:

- Occupational skills training – choose from a variety of programs and schools listed on the eligible training provider list found at <http://careersourcesouthwestflorida.com/occupations-in-demand/>
- On-the-Job training (OJT) – earn while you learn the skills necessary to successfully to the job.

Please ask, or call back, to schedule an appointment if you would like to return at a later time.
Please call if you cannot make it to your appointment.
